The Academy and its sponsors undertake: • first, that the film, photograph, or other material will be used only for the legitimate promotion of the work of the Academy and its sponsors; • secondly, that the film, photograph, or other material will in no way be distorted, edited, cropped or otherwise altered, so as to give a false or misleading impression of the circumstances in which it was taken; • thirdly, that the film, photograph, or other material will not be used for commercial profit, nor used in commercial advertising without specific consent; • fourthly, that the film, photograph, or other material will not be sold, given, lent, copied or otherwise made available, to third parties, other than to the persons appointed by the Academy to publish promotional material and then only for that specific purpose.

CODE OF CONDUCT

All students agree to abide by the following rules of conduct for participation at the Hawai'i State Science & Engineering Fair (HSSEF)

1. I understand that the military has sponsored my participation at the State Fair due to my interests and achievements in the sciences, engineering, and mathematics. Accordingly, I pledge to fully participate in all State Fair activities.
2. I understand that I am representing my District as a delegate to the State Fair.
3. I will not depart the Symposium sites without consent from my chaperone.
4. I understand that the use of alcoholic beverages, or other substances that are generally regarded to be detrimental or illegal, will not be tolerated at the State Fair. Use or possession will result in immediate dismissal from the Symposium and return home at my parents' and/or guardians' expense.
5. I pledge to be respectful of my peers, speakers, and other attendees at the State Fair. I understand that should I behave in a disrespectful manner, both my chaperone and the designated staff of the Hawai'i Academy of Science will make appropriate decisions for the benefit of all participants. This could include dismissal from the State Fair and return home at my parents' and/or guardians' expense.
